

Preserve Net Neutrality. Keep access, and therefore opportunity, democratic by preserving freedom of access to information, education, and business on the internet. It's antithetical to American values to create a first and second-class citizenry on this basis. If America is to remain a strong leader in the world we cannot hobble large parts of our population. We are strongest when all American citizens can reach their potential and contribute. Thank you.